LEGISLATIVE BUSINESS.

Mr. Kochikkal P. Balakrishnan Tampi: Before we proceed to the legislative business, I wish to point out to the House certain anonymous amendments printed and circulated to the members on the Travancore Medical Practitioners' Bill.

President: But I have got an unanonymous amendment before me.

Mr. V. Sankara Menon: It is put as B. Paramu.

Mr. Kochikkal P. Balakrishnan Tampi: I dare say he is not a member.

President: That will be explained.

THE TRAVANCORE ANCHAL ACT (AMENDMENT) BILL.

Mr K. G. Kunjukrishna Pillai (Legal Remembrancer to Government): Sir, I move that the Travancore Anchal Act (Amendment) Bill as passed by the Assembly be taken into consideration.

Mr. A. Lakshminarayana Ayyar (Financial Secretary to Government): I second it.

Mr. K. G. Kunjukrishna Pillai: The object of the Bill is very simple. Under the Anchal Act, the schedule is part of the Act. In that schedule the price of Anchal cards, covers and stamps is fixed. The schedule has now to be amended by the legislature because it is proposed to enhance the price of cards and covers. The proposal is to enhance the maximum price for covers at 1½ chs. and cards 12 cash.

President: The honourable member may perhaps explain that the maximum is not proposed to be levied now.

Mr. K. G. Kunjukrishna Pillai: It is not proposed to levy the maximum rate now. It is proposed only to levy one chackram for covers and 8 cash for cards now. This has necessitated the amendment to the Act.
